Research, Innovation & Entrepreneurship Development Cell

Institute is establishing the Research, Innovation & Entrepreneurship Development Cell (RIEDC) to promote research, innovation and entrepreneurship students and faculty of Ayurveda of BYSAMC&H. NCISM also has mandated all Ayurvedic colleges to establish the above cell to promote research, innovation and entrepreneurship culture, to fulfill the dream of India becoming No.3 country in terms of GDP by 2030, based on themes like innovate India, Skill India, Startup India schemes. Establishing RIEDC would be stepping stone in that direction.

RIEDC would promote the activities by conducting awareness programs, skill development programs, innovation competitions, entrepreneurship development activities and support startups in the field of Ayurveda.

RIEDC will meet quarterly once formally to discuss the activities proposed, action taken during that period. It will also plan the research innovation and entrepreneurship for short-term, mid-term and long-term. It would facilitate the enthusiastic students and faculty to fulfill their dream on research innovation and entrepreneurship through hand holding and organizing capacity programs. It will collaborate various other organizations involved with research, innovation and entrepreneurship and tie possible MoUs.

Principal will be chairman of the RIEDC and Chairman will nominate the all the members based on their interest and activities. RIEDC will be for a period of two years or further modification, whichever is earlier.
